

Bring The Kids Home, Transition Age Youth Policy Summit

This is an opportunity for youth to have their voices heard about what it takes to become self-sufficient! We are looking for:

- youth with disabilities,
- youth with experience in foster care,
- youth with experience in residential treatment,
- youth who have had special education/individualized education plans,
- youth who have had mental health or substance abuse out-patient treatment,
- youth who have been in Division of Juvenile Justice facilities, or
- youth that have used other supportive services to come join us for this two day discussion. A Youth is anyone 16-24 years of age.

We need your voice added to the conversation!
